Benefit for Palsy Fund

"We dance—that others may walk" is the theme of the Torrance Elks Lodge musical extravaganza to be presented tomorrow and Saturday at the Torrance High School Auditorium, at 8 p.m. All proceeds are earmarked for the cerebral palsy fund.

The "Elks-A-Poppin'" variety show will feature more than 100 lodge members, their wives and friends in intricate dance routines, zany sketches and numerous song lyrics. An after-theater dance, for

HIGHLIGHTS

Helen Herrald, Editor

Bob Earle of THE RED ONION insists on authenticity! And ¡laqui esta!

The CANTINA, recent addition to the popular Mexican restaurant which features Sonora style fare, takes guests "South of the Border" with the first step across the pegged floors.

Enrique Heredia, flamenco guitarist, will entertain tonight through Saturday in an atmosphere of Rowena Kirkpatrick gay seniorita paintings (one is very gay), peeling adobe wall, and, si, there is even a balcony draped with a serape just waiting for a Don Juan's spirited ascent.

The door to the Cantina, take steps down by iron grillwork or through the restaurant, opens at 11:30 a.m. Adios time is midnight during the week and 2 a.m. Friday and Saturday.

PAY AS YOU GO: Depressing note for us cigarette smokers. A pharmacy in the Hollywood Riviera is selling cigarettes at 35 cents a pack. Purchaser automatically contributes a dime to the Cancer fund.

Join the club! Glenn Billingley reports many business organizations are taking advantage of the combined facilities of the DOMINGUEZ Golf Course and GOLDEN BULL Restaurant to take a turn at the links for tournaments followed by dinner parties. Participants in the double entertainment have included North American Aviation, Murray Plumbing, Aero Space Co., the Bartenders Union, Sprague Engiand other HAPPY groups.

TAKE SIX! Pat Shartrand of the ROLLING HILLS GOLF COURSE, has announced scores of the first Junior Golf Tournament.

Many of the participants entered after only six lessons and the results brought 'bravos!' for instructors and juniors.

Overall-all boy and girl winners were: Jack Bowker, 57, one under par, for 18 holes; and Sally Crandall, 79.

Ten and 11-year-old boy and girl winners: Alan Randall Smith, 88; and Jennifer Young, 105.

Twelve and 13-year-old winners: Kim Bucci, 72; and Marianne Boyer, 89.

Fourteen, 15, and 16-year-old winners: Randy Greer, 79; and Jan Strohecker, 90.

The next junior class will begin the latter part of March or first of April depending on completion of the new driving range.

Limited reservations are available for the Chapel Theatre production "The Desperate Hours" which will run weekends through Feb. 29. Box office is FR 2-9636.

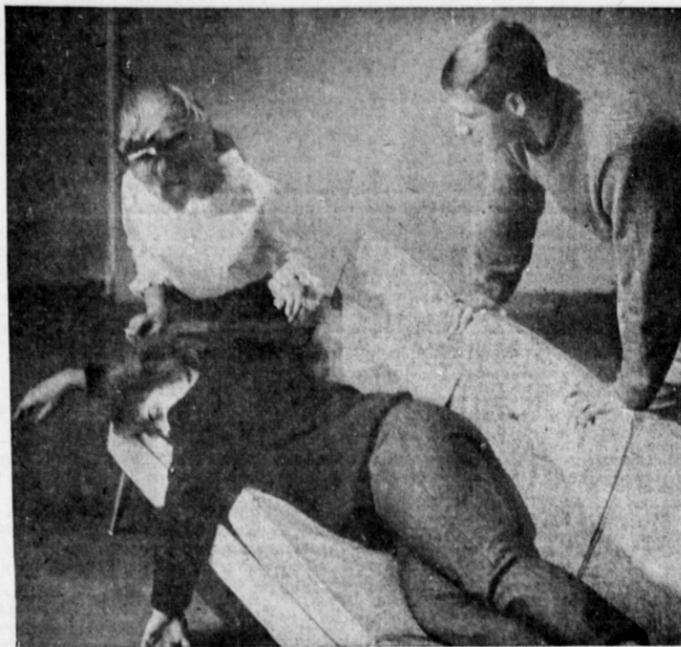

Kathy Ehlers has been named as the lead in the Harbor College spring production of "Little Mary Sunshine."

Co-stars will be Bob Bailiff as Captain Jim and Michelle L'Esperance as Nancy.

Other cast members include: Bob Tucker as Fleet Foot, Mike Yelovich as Yellow Feather, and Eleanor Hacker and Larry Cheek as chorus leaders.

Fred Martin, drama instructor, and Robert Billings instructor of music, will direct. Joe Rojas will serve as assistant to Martin and student choreographer will be Eleanor Hacker.

Nine Harbor College art students of Miss Jari Havela's art classes are currently exhibiting their paintings, drawings, designs, and constructions in the administration building of the board of education. Students chosen to represent the college art

THEN THERE WERE NINE . . . Linda Wood and Scott Hanlan discover the body of Yvonne Colletti in scene from murder mystery, "Ten Little Indians," which opened at North High School last night. There will be two performances of the North High drama department production Saturday at 1 p.m. and 8 p.m.

North High Opens Play By Christie

"Ten Little Indians," a mystery play by Agatha Christie, will be presented by the North High drama department tonight and Saturday, according to Gerald Pendrick, director.

The three-act play, to be held in the school cafeteria, relates the story of ten people mysteriously invited to an island, eight of them never to return alive.

Vera Claythorne; Steve Plakos, General MacKenzie; and Gill Whitehead, Doctor Armstrong. There will be three showings: tonight at 7:30 p.m., and Saturday at 1 and 8 p.m.

Senior Citizen Area at Alondra Ready in March

Dedication ceremonies will be held at the new Ernest Eccles Senior Citizens Area at Alondra Park March 20 at 10 a.m., according to Supervisor Kenneth Hahn.

Named in honor of councilman and former Mayor Eccles of Lawndale, the new facility will include picnic areas, shuffleboard and other recreation.

department are: Kathleen Rood, Jay Steffy, Gary Schmidt, Tonya Summers, Ida Gottsdanker, Kay Brewer, Don Zuber, Beverly Parker, and Loni McDaniel.
